

DAILY COURIER.

SUNDAY MORNING. JUNE 7, 1861.

Courier's Specials.

WASHINGTON.

THE TAX BILL RECOMMITTED.

Special Bill for Whisky and Tobacco to be Passed.

Arkansas to be Represented in Congress within Two Weeks.

McClellan Rejected as Minister to England.

VIEW OF CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

Senate Cox to Run for Congress from New York.

GEORGIA CONSTITUTION TO BE MOVED.

No Repudiation of Debt Contracted During the War.

Official Telegraphic Correspondence of the Law to the Confederacy.

VAN ZANDT BILL.

Wagerman, June 6.—In the Wager and Money Committee, Mr. Wagerman recommended that no action be taken, but it is quite certain that the section relating to whisky and tobacco will be passed at a special session, and the balance will go over to the Senate.

THE AGRICULTURE BILL.

The Committee on Agriculture voted to pass the bill, and the House voted to pass it forward to the Senate.

There was a noisy discussion over the Senate's failure to do so, and McClellan as minister to England, party and non-party alike, was never more popular.

CHAS. JONES CRANE.

The Richmond Whig said that Chas. Jones Crane, now in that city, says the letter to regular agents of the South, which he expects to receive from the Union and Milwaukee Railroad, has led him to certain results.

The House agreed to hold a meeting on Saturday evening to consider the motion for adjournment.

THE UNION PACIFIC BILL.

Wagerman, June 6.—The portion of the bill relating to the construction of the Union Pacific railroad was referred to the Committee on the Pacific, and the bill was referred to the Pacific War Committee.

THE COST OF THE GOVERNMENT.

The warrant issued for the support of the government for the month of June, $1,000,000, was including the reduction of the $100,000, sent by the Comptroller.

THE FEDERAL DEBT.

The bill amending the act creating public debt for the sum of $100,000,000, was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. BOYER.

From the Military Committee:

Mr. BOYER, June 6.—A bill to amend the members of his corps, to day, to return the command of the horse corps and other corps to the rank in which they were commissioned, and to add to their pay, and to make compensation to them for their services, was introduced by Mr. BOYER.

The bill was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. BOYER.

From the Committee on Appropriations:

Mr. BOYER.